Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can give away his counter free of cost of goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Owing to delay in shipping the goods we were unable to offer them before today. They are now ready for you, and when we say that never before were we in position to offer you such values as we do in this sale, we simply tell you the truth.

In the excitement of this Clothing sale don't overlook the fact that we carry the best line of MEN'S SHOES that were ever offered in Maysville. A glance at our show-window tells the story briefly.

OCTOBER NECESSITIES!

CLOAKS.—Dollars do double duty in wrap buying, thanks to the unseasonable weather. Coat makers are frantic. It's either quick selling or worse. So right at the threshold of winter we have dozens of stylish, stylish, well tailored wraps to sell at prices like these:

$4.00 WRAPS AT..... $3.50 $7.50 WRAPS AT..... $6.00 $8.00 WRAPS AT..... $7.00 $10.00 WRAPS AT..... $8.75

Don't misread us—not every garment here is at reduced price, but dozens are. Maker's losses of profits and often a large sale from prime cost. Coat bargains at the unusual end of the season. Quality, style and price have every rightness represented.

APRONS.—Did you buy of the lot advertised last week? They sold in a day. But we have other values just as good. India linen aprons with big, generous aprons are plain, others are tucked, all are large enough to offer real dress protection, pretty enough to keep on when you have a morning caller, strong enough to stand lots of hard usage.

NEW COMERS.—Yard square Table Covers in cloth-of-gold prettily fringed, 10 different colors, 25c. Appliqued denim covers, same size, fringed, 25c. Either will add a touch of daintiness to any room.

Bathies have returned to fashion—some are selling and some are not. We are selling ours because they are correct in style, light, graceful, comfortable. Made of best quality gray or black French flannel cloth. 35c.

Security Hose Suspenders, all colors; fancy silk webbing finished with satin bows. Very pretty. 25c.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

Think of a pure Scotch Linen Towel, white barred with red, prettily fringed, for 10c. Why that would hardly pay for the fringe, and here you get the Towel thrown in and all for 10c.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
 Adopted at Louisville, Aug. 10th, 1907.

Resolved, by the Republican party in Convention assembled—

First—That we reaffirm the principles of the Republican party as set forth in the platform adopted by it at St. Louis in 1904.

Second—That we indorse the Republican National Administration, and especially commend the action of our present state officials in their efforts to suppress mob violence and to preserve the financial credit of the state.

Third—We commend the action of the representatives of the Republican party in the passage of a Tariff Bill which will raise revenue sufficient to support the Government, prevent the issue of interest-bearing bonds, protect American labor and maintain the National credit.

Fourth—We are opposed to a system of Civil Service that builds up an official class with practically a life tenure in almost all branches of the public service, and we demand that the Civil Service Law be modified so as to limit the terms of service to four years, with the privilege of reappointment or promotion, subject to such restrictions as will secure competent officials and give to every citizen of the country its proper proportion of them.

Fifth—We heartily sympathize with the struggling people of Cuba in their efforts to secure liberty and independence.

Sixth—That we recommend to the people the adoption of the Constitutional amendment submitted by the last Legislature, allowing all cities and towns the privilege of regulating under legislative supervision the method of levying the taxes they impose on themselves for city and town expenses.

Seventh—We favor the passage of a law that will protect the laborers of Kentucky from the competition of convict labor, and, if necessary to accomplish said result, an amendment to the Constitution permitting such legislation.

"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

RIGHT in the heat of the state campaigns, when Mr. BRYAN's services should be loudly spoken for at the rate of four speeches a day, Mr. BRYAN is found visiting his boyhood home at Salem, Ill. It is hard to understand how he can keep himself away from Ohio, Iowa and New York under the circumstances. But then it is no longer the campaign of 1896, as Mr. BRYAN has found to his sorrow, and, properly having returned, Mr. BRYAN and other silver calamity criers are not eagerly sought after by the managers of State Democratic Committees.

WHEN is that wicked MARK HANNA going to let it rain?

That wicked MARK HANNA is still at it. The potato crop is nearer a failure at present than at any other time since 1892.

It's a mighty puny Democrat who changes his politics to suit some Republican. Bulletin.

How about a Republican who "changes his politics" and votes for some Democrat?

Let every Republican get out and do his simple duty. There may be danger from over-confidence. It is as important this year as it was last that every Republican vote should be polled, for the result in some of the states is of National import, and Free-silver needs a death blow yet.

Just listen to this. Kansas Bank Commissioner BRIDENBATH, a Populist, says:

"Kansas is today the most prosperous state in the Union. There will be 40,000 homes cleared of mortgages this fall. Think of what that means. The mortgages will average $1,000 each, which means the expenditure of $40,000,000."

Of course the election of BRYAN and the inauguration of the Free-collage-of-silver dad is what brought all this about.

THE railroad employees of the country are not regretting their labors and votes of last year in favor of McKINLEY, Sound Money and Protection. The gross earnings of the year just ended for the railroads of the country are $55,000,000 greater than in the year preceding, and the number of people employed has largely increased, with a higher scale of wages in many cases. Railroad shops have started up all over the country on full overtime, giving employment to thousands of old hands who had been thrown out of employment by the previous depression, and the difference generally between conditions in railroad circles now and a year ago shows a remarkable change.

THANKS, awfully, Br'er MARSH; THE LEDGER was perfectly aware that ballots had to be printed with a "double stub," and that these had to be separated from the ballot paper by perforated lines.

THE LEDGER is aware, also, that it is much the simpler way, and the most convenient way for the Election Clerk, to put the "primary" stub at the top of the ballot where it is bound into the book, the "secondary" stub being at the bottom of the ballot.

The law giving the "form" of the ballot shows the stub on the left-hand side of it, but says—

"The arrangement of the ballot shall, in general, conform as nearly as practicable to the plan hereinafter given," &c.

"any old kind of a ballot."

SEPARATE ballots were not printed for city and county in 1903. The names of all candidates, both city and county, went on the same ballot, and only 22 books were required, just as in 1904. Bulletin.

Well, this is "wuss and wuss" Where do you get your authority for putting the city and county ballots on one sheet?

And why did you charge the county for work that the city should have paid for?

Maybe you'd better look up the Election Law before you get farther into deep, muddy water.

Cast your eyes on this from the Kentucky Election Law:

"§ 1492. The printing and delivery of the ballots and cards of instruction to voters hereinafter described shall, in municipal elections, BE PAID FOR BY THE SEVERAL CITIES respectively; and in all other elections the printing of the ballots * * * shall be paid for by the several counties respectively."

Now, put this in your $257.50 pipe and smoke it for awhile.

OUR WASHINGTON MAN.

THE LEDGER'S SPECIAL LETTER FROM THE CAPITAL.

Special Correspondence Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, October 23d, 1907.

The final effort of the Democrats to prejudice the people against the McKinley Administration and Senator Hanna has reacted against them and their own party with great force and promptness.

This closing performance of their campaign of uncertainty in all things except abuse and malignity was the publication of a charge that in some mysterious way Senator Hanna had pledged the sale of the Union Pacific Railroad to a syndicate of New York bankers last year, and obtained in exchange for that pledge large campaign contributions.

That this statement is absolutely false is so apparent that its effect has already been a boomerang. It has reacted upon its authors and upon their own party.

The reason of this jaw-fodder, first, their statement has set people to looking up the matter, and they find that the sale of the road was ordered by a Democratic Administration, and that the present Administration had nothing to do but merely to carry out the plans originated and practically completed by their Democratic predecessors; second, that these plans only provided for a sale of the road to the highest bidder, hence there could be no favoritism. The precaution was taken to get an agreement from certain parties that a certain sum would be bid, in order to prevent its being knocked down at a very low price, but this agreement does not prevent others bidding, and it is now understood that other bids will be made.

It is thus apparent that the entire hullabaloo made by the Democratic press on this subject is merely for effect upon voters in the coming election, knowing, of course, that a large share of the voters have not followed this question in detail, and that they would not know whether the statement was true or false.

Attorney-General McKenna, whose integrity and high standing cannot be called in question, said, in discussing the matter: "The reorganization committee has in no way been shown the slightest favor or given the least advantage. The road will be sold to the highest responsible bidder, without any reference to his personality. If a bid of $51,000,000 is made, and the reorganization committee does not increase its offer to $52,000,000, the property will go to the parties making the new proposal. The guaranteed bid was obtained to prevent the possibility of disastrous loss. If this guarantee did not exist, an opportunity would be afforded for bidders to form a combination and offer a comparatively low figure for the road."

"The increase in the reorganization committee's bid is easily explained. Subsequent to the filing of the original guarantee bid of $45,754,026, a number of overlooked contributions were discovered. These included the bridge across the Missouri River at Omaha and a number of money considerations. The bridge mortgages amounted to about $1,300,000, the lien on the Omaha and Council Bluffs division to more than $2,000,000, and other contributions brought the aggregate to nearly $4,000,000."

"In view of these contentions the decrees of the courts were unsatisfactory and papers were prepared for an appeal. At that time the reorganization committee increased its bid by $4,345,941 to cover these additional sums, thus raising the total bid to over $50,000,000. In all other respects the decrees were just and satisfactory."

Attorney-General McKenna expressly stipulates that there was no formal agreement between the Government and the reorganization committee. The guarantee bid was arranged by letters between former Attorney-General Harmon and special counsel for the committee. The agreement, he says, goes no further than to provide for the appearance of the Government in suits brought to foreclose the first-mortgage bonds and to bring suit for foreclosing its own. The sale of the property, he says, must necessarily be under the direction of the courts, with the whole world for bidders.

The Attorney-General cannot see that the Government had any other alternative than to become a party to foreclosure proceedings after the failure of Congress to meet refunding legislation. With the foreclosure of the first-mortgage bonds, he says, the Government would have had nothing but an "equity of redemption."

In other words, the Government would have been forced to liquidate the obligations under the first-mortgage in order to protect its own interests. This course the former Administration considered inexpedient and instituted necessary legal proceedings to set the road.

Judge McKenna does not express an opinion as to the propriety of the Government having decided to become a party to a joint suit. But that step having been taken, the Government is amenable to the decrees of the court as a creditor.

His present duty he regards as plain—to permit all interests in the road to be sold at public auction to the reorganization committee or to any committee or any body or association of persons—in fact, to the highest bidder.

The Attorney-General regards the prospects of a higher bid than $50,000,000 as being as favorable now as it would be at a later period. "The fact must not be overlooked," said Judge McKenna, "that the Government's lien is a second one, subject to a first mortgage of $38,000,000. The advantage the Government has secured is that at the sale under the decrees of foreclosure there will be a bid for the roads of $50,000 over and above the first mortgage, and in addition the benefit of absolute freedom of competition at the sale. The Government may secure its whole claim through a higher bid. It is sure of $50,000,000, and this amount, in connection with the payments already made, will pay the principal of the debt twice over."

M. C. Russell & Son are preparing for an unusually large fall and holiday trade, judging from the immense quantities of candy that the firm has received.

The cases of Bramel vs. Byron taken from this county, and Pollock vs. M. and B. S. Railroad from Lewis, have been submitted in the Court of Appeals.

BLADDER TROUBLES.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

SAMPLE SENT FREE.

Unhealthy urine from unclean kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. It is comforting to know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root finds every way in quick relief of bladder and urinary troubles. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding or stinging pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, without cost, by mail. Mention Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

SPAN'S DEMAND

That This Government Put An End to Filibustering

Will Provoke a Sharp Rejoinder From Secretary of State Sherman.

Nearly a More Irritating Charge Could Be Made by Spain, and Spanish Sensibilities May Receive a Shock in the Prompt Rejoinder That Will Be Made.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—If, as announced in the Madrid dispatches, the answer of Spain to Minister Woodford's communication comes in the form of a demand that the United States government support an end to filibustering expeditions to Cuba, it will provoke a sharp rejoinder from Secretary Sherman. Scarcely a more irritating reply could be made by Spain than one which attempts to put upon the United States the responsibility for the prolongation of the Cuban struggle. In the face of a clamorously expressed public sentiment, this government has refrained from any recognition of active sympathy with the Cuban insurgents, and the power of the government has been used to prevent filibustering to an extent far beyond what congress has regarded as warranted, even if our sympathies had been with Spain.

For Spain to demand still more effective police service of this government, and to attempt to fix on the United States the responsibility for the strength and endurance of the rebellion, will be irritating, even exasperating to an extent far beyond what congress has regarded as warranted, even if our sympathies had been with Spain.
